

RAMSEY COUNTY FAMILY COURT

Ramsey County has two locations for its hearings. Most matters involving Family Court Referees are heard at 15 West Kellogg Boulevard, Saint Paul, MN 55102, which is the historic City Hall and County Government building.

Enter the Courthouse on either Kellogg Boulevard or Fourth Street. Both entries have security checkpoints, similar to what you find at airports.

You will want to check in with the Bailiffs by giving them the name of your hearing officer, the general name of your case, and your name. You should then wait in the seating area there.

Parking for this location is on Wabasha Street, either immediately across Wabasha Street at the Radisson Hotel or further up Wabasha Street (away from the River) at the Victory Ramp. Parking is also located West on Kellogg Boulevard at the Science Museum. DO NOT PARK at metered street parking, because the length of your wait or of your hearing can be very uncertain.

Family Court matters heard by District Court Judges are generally heard at the Juvenile & Family Justice Center, 25 West Seventh Street, Saint Paul, MN 55102.

Enter this facility from either Saint Peter Street or Seventh Street. There will be a security checkpoint, similar to what you find at airports. Go to your right, either to the information counter there, or the ones immediately inside the doors, to obtain the location of your hearing. Simply ask which courtroom your assigned Judge is hearing cases in that day. Then proceed to the elevators (immediately ahead from the security area) and wait in the seating areas outside the courtroom.

Parking for this location is immediately across Saint Peter Street (a self-pay lot, which is frequently full); and immediately to the East at the corner of Seventh Street and Wabasha Streets in the Science Museum parking lot.
